Mrs. C. W. McKemy entertained Tuesday afternoon at her residence on North Main street with a pretty bridge party. After the games a delicious salad course was served by the hostess. Mrs. J. L. Norwood evidently overreached the last judgmental line for she won the high score honors with Mrs. William Klein second. Among those present were Madeline Norwood, Klein, Wagner, Franklin, Pickard, Greenwood, White, Black, Cox, Kilgore and Miss Burton. Mrs. McKemy as a hostess was splendid and everyone, including the low scores, enjoyed themselves.

SILVERCRAFT WARE Cut glass and quadruple plate silver. The proper thing for the wedding or shower present or for the next bridge game—$1.50 to $3.00 the piece—at FROST'S HARDWARE & FURNITURE STORE, Broadway.

Secretary Curry of the Ramaña after spending four long years in the O. M. C. Camp Furiosa, has resigned and has taken to the only life. He has just completed one of the first cottages at the Ramaña and is now commencing nest building. The Ramaña is now exciting as next week the air drills will be working from a nine-ton compressor and for the first time in the history of the Tree Hermanns real mining will be commenced. Before another week the debris from the old Waterloo shaft, which has been enlarged, will be cleaned out and the air drills will be in virgin low grade ore.

STOVE PIPE is no good. Why not instead FROST'S HARDWARE & FURNITURE, Broadway. The price is low.

The new members of the Theta Tau chapter is much appreciated by the parents of this house. It is now composed of five pieces and Mr. King says he intends to keep on enlarging and improving it. Increased attendance allows the public to appreciate the change.

Allen Brazil entertained the K. K. and faculty last Friday at the home of Miss Constance and Dorothy Lovett. Guests were entertained in the club rooms, black and red, and delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake and cream were devoured by the guests. The meeting was spent in games and contests. Everyone reported a good time.

J. J. McEvoy, formerly of Franklin, Ga., is a newcomer to Columbus who has decided to end his life with the future of the city. He has taken a long-term lease on the vacant property adjoining the Guyz Hotel, owned by Mr. Smith, who will at once erect a model store room. Mr. McEvoy will engage it with a first-class jewelry store. He is an expert repair man. It is expected that the building will be ready about November 15. Watch for his advertisement opening.

One of the most notable bits of news portion of the season was given Wednesday evening by Mrs. H. B. Gardner in favor of Albert Gardner at the Gardner home on the West Side. The rooms were tastefully decorated in orange and black and Jack 'n' Lauderdale furnished the illumination. bats, owls, whitethroats and black cats with hand-painted scenes from all corners. And the evening was full of surprises for the young folks as when they filed into the dining room they were greeted with a sight unusual. The dining table centerpiece was an enormous pumpkin basket filled with luminous red apples. A salad course was served in real spaghetti and after supper the young folks toasted marshmallows around a campfire. During the evening two genuine snakes slithered silently through the rooms with premonition. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Moore of the Columbus theater. Among those present were Vern Chadburn, Mary Lee Chadburn, Delta Johnson, Maile Carter, Winifred Carlisle, Marie Carter, Ruth Post, Daisy Newland, Helen

POWERFUL LOVE STORY AT COLUMBUS WEDNESDAY

If you were a little Southern girl whose grandfather and uncle had not spoken since they chose opposite sides in the Civil War and you were left a legacy contingent on your ending the estrangement between the brothers, how would you act about it?

Little Dulcie didn't know, but lived bold and so set her plans and set out alone into the hostile atmosphere of her uncle's home in New York. How she did only brought less me more into the two households, but she was a Northern sweethearts against all odds and came home with a great fortune of whose existence she had no knowledge, is told in the Vitagraph picture, "Miss Dulcie From Dixie" which will be the attraction at the Columbus theater next Wednesday night, November 3, the night after the democrats celebrate the election of their ticket. Gladys Leslie is the star and has one of the most effective screen roles in her screen career. She is supported by an able cast.

Movie houses in Columbus are doing big business. Orpheum is apparently as much of an attraction as screens.

Silver City's sanatorium gets new owner and operator.

Mogollon intermediate district has big crop of wild turkeys.

JOHN MCGRAW'S REHEARING
John McGraw, field supervisor of the Columbus "Team" Library, who was beaten and left for dead by a robber who snatched $100 two weeks ago, is back at the Court Library and the $100 claim is still under review by the physicians. His condition is still a question of his assistants. He says the robber knocked on the front door and forced his way in. The robber asked for his money and John told him he had no authority to give him any money. At that the robber struck him with a gun and then hopped onto McGraw's lap and into unconsciousness.

Bake Without The AKE

YOU know the result of constantly stooping over an ordinary low oven—the blood rushes to your head, the heat rolls out in your face, you rise with a "kink" in your back, and have that disagreeable dizzy feeling. Haven't you had that experience?

That's why the LEONARD HI-OVEN RANGE, with its shoulder-high oven, is nearer the heart of the woman who owns one than anything else in her kitchen—it saves her strength and makes her most important task a genuine pleasure.

Here Are Four Other Things You'll Like About the Leonard Hi-Oven Range

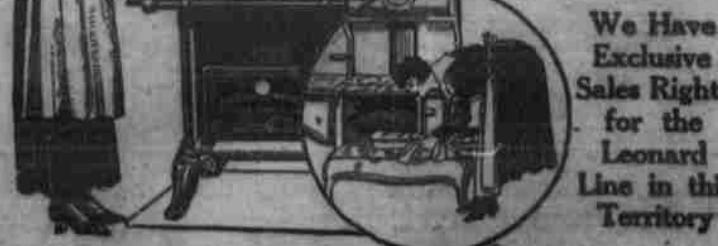

Quick Heating: Oven begins to heat the moment the fire is lighted—no wasted "chimney heat." Hot enough to bake in ten minutes. The oven of a Leonard Hi-Oven Coal or Wood Range heats to baking temperature more quickly than the oven of a gas range. The heat travels upward and heats the oven quickly without waste.

Fuel Savings: The fuel you save will pay for the range. Here's what Royal R. Holloman (Commission Engineer, Iowa State College) says about the Leonard Hi-Oven Range. "It is possible to save 50% in fuel as compared to the low-oven range. The combustion of the fire-lots and draft are such that perfect combustion is very easily obtained."

Better Baking: The baking doesn't have to be turned, because the heat is carried upward around the oven in such a way as to heat evenly on all sides. Unnecessary to open the oven—prevents many a baking failure.

Space Saving: The Leonard Hi-Oven Range is a boon in the small kitchen—extreme measurements of the model shown only 30" x 30". Saves a third or more floor space and has ample cooking and baking space. Handsome in design, size, and color to the surroundings of any kitchen.

Let Us Tell You More About It
Without obligating yourself in any way to buy. We want you to see the Leonard Hi-Oven Range. We know when you've seen it you'll want it, and you won't be satisfied with any other type.

SCHOOL BUS TURNED OVER: CHILDREN INJURED

BIG PUGS WILL FIGHT ANY OLD PLACE WHERE WANTED

Raton, N. M., Oct. 28.—Several children were badly bruised and injured when the school bus turned over at the corner of the cemetery road. The top of the bus was torn off and all the children, twelve in number, were thrown into the road, a sandy place in the road caused the instability.

CLOVER MAN MAY DIE: SHOT IN ABDOMEN BY GIRLS SUITOR

Clayton, N. M., Oct. 28.—Francisco Loranza, aged 33 years, lies in his home in a serious condition on account of being shot. He was in his back yard when, it is alleged, Jesus Juarez, who was engaged to his daughter, quarreled with his prospective father-in-law and then shot him in the abdomen.

MONITORIAN INSTITUTE DISTRICT HAS BIG CROP OF WILD TURKEYS

The number of round, the pipes of battle and the exact date of the Carpenter-Dempsey fight are the subjects for discussion of promoters, who are to inform the public 60 days before the contest. Each fighter received a $25 per cent right in the motion picture prints, the other to be sold going to the promoters. The bout will be conducted by Rickard and Charles A. Brady, the last named representative of Carpenter's interests. The contract was agreed to after a long conference, at which were present the joint promoters, Jack Keane, manager of Jack Dempsey, and Francisco Schenck, manager of Carpenter, and four lawyers representing the various interests involved.

While Tex Rickard and his fellow promoters refused to disclose the amount of the purse to be given the fighters before the final signing of the contract tomorrow, it is known that, including certain percentages, it will approach $600,000.

This is far in excess of any previous purse; the record purse held by Rickard's contract with Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey, whereby Willard received $125,000 and Dempsey $22,000 for their fight at Tolson on July 4, 1919. The division of the purse will show that Dempsey receives more than Carpenter.

While the promoters are understood to be planning to hold the bout in Madison Square Garden, provision is being made to shift the bout anywhere the conditions warrant.
